Project Number: P-2368

Rotary Club: Prescott Sunup Rotary Club

Project title: Meeting Anne C. Roberts Dream

Project Description. What was done in 110 words or less?

The project is on going as it is a new library for a school that did not have one. Thus far, funds were spent on buying Jr Library Guild subscriptions: A. Series Non-Fiction Science, 50 books/yr related to different grade levels. B. Scholastic: STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) books: 41 books/yr related to different grades. C. Must Have Core Books for STEM library: 24 books. Next step will be installing shelving and organizing books.
When (dates) and where (city and state) did the project take place?

Between September 2018 and May 2019 Prescott Valley, AZ

Who were the beneficiaries?

Students attending the school and also community in general who will also have access.

How many Rotarians participated in this project?

Two in planning it. More later as there will be a work session in late Spring/early Summer to install shelves.
What did the Rotarians do? Give at least two examples.

One member is the sister of Anne Roberts and is leading the foundation to make this happen. A couple others helped put together the grant request. Later on in the early summer there will be 10+ members installing new book shelves and organizing the books

How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?

This is benefiting the children in the school and also members of the Cottonwood, AZ community who will have access.
If a cooperating organization was used, what was its role?

The Anne C. Roberts Dream Foundation coordinated the planning and purchasing of the books and is organizing the work session coming up.
