Rotary Club donates to Crisis Center

Will hold Jan. 17 fundraiser

Members of the Orland Park Rotary Club gathered Monday, Dec. 17, at the Crisis Center of South Suburbia to donate a check for $1,000.

The Crisis Center is a non-profit community organization that provides emergency shelter and other essential services for individuals and families victimized by domestic violence and addresses the societal issues that contribute to domestic violence.

The check was part of Rotary District 6450's Peace in Action District grants, which the Orland club had applied for and received.

"This grant gave us another opportunity to help out a local organization and we've been working with the Crisis Center for more than 20 years," said club president Deb Baker. "This is what's great about being part of Rotary – as Rotarians we have the ability to take funds we raise here in our community and pair it with grant money from our Rotary Foundation.

"Rotary International gives local clubs the flexibility to assist the charities in our own communities where we can have the most impact. It's a way we can show support for what these tremendous organizations do to help our own community members," Baker said.

Additionally, the club is holding a Rotary Peace Project Initiative for the Crisis Center from 5 to 8 p.m. Jan. 17 at Miller's Ale House, 15630 S. LaGrange Rd., Orland Park.

Attendees who bring in the event flyer will have 15 percent of their bill donated to the Crisis Center. The event flyer is available on the club's Facebook page.

"We are really excited about our Jan. 17 event at Miller's Ale House and we hope to have a big turnout," said Baker, who added the club raises funds year-round through its foundation and annual raffle in May.

The Orland Park Rotary Club meets the first Thursday of every month at 12:15 p.m. at Silver Lake Country Club, 14700 S. 82nd Ave., Orland Park. The club is always seeking new members. More information about the club, including how to schedule a visit at the next meeting, may be obtained by calling President Debra Baker at (708) 712-7786.
