"Extended Value" - by Memberx23 (CHESTER, VA, United States)

My twins love these things. They are one of the only items we have purchased for them that they actually play with regularly. I wish the price wasn't so steep but I think we've gotten our money's worth so far. These were purchased Christmas 2016 and the girls (age 15 months) still get lots of use out of them. Recommended.

"Sturdy for Daycare" - by dnels

I bought this for daycare children and am using it indoors. It does take up a large amount of space and would take a while to take a part for storage. The kids love it! It gives them some physical activity during the winter months. Also, has been good as a reward; if someone has a super day, they get to nap in the caterpillar. They have named it "Happy Cappy"

"No sunshine needed!" - by GalliganiDuo (PA)

Perfect for rainy days inside! My kids love to be active, now they don't need to slow down even if it's raining. The seat is awesome for my older son who loves to lay in it and swing gently while reading a good book.

"These are a FANTASTIC deal! A four pack of these rocks cost ..." - by chelsea frye

These are a FANTASTIC deal! A four pack of these rocks cost 20.00+ at my local hardware store. These were perfect for the rock wall my husband built for my son. very sturdy, hardware included. Fairly easy to install. (easiest with two people)

I really am very pleased with these ,we have gotten several people ask where we bought them!

"90% amazing! *18 months later, 99%!" - by Hmv07735

I'm updating this. It's been a year and a half since we purchased it. WE LOVE IT. For all the downfalls that I wrote in my original post, the love for this outweighs it all. My kids are 8.5 and 6. I though they'd be outgrowing it by now but they still play on it! They pretend they're doing ninja warrior now haha. Still read full review but if you're wondering if it's worth it, for me it is.

Ok. So I had been waiting and waiting to buy this. The price dropped a little so I decided to go for it. Here's my review after a weekend of heavy use from the kiddos.

First, they love it. They can't stop playing on it. They got blisters on their hands from climbing the monkey bars so much. I had to order monkey bar gloves haha! But from their perspective, it's amazing.

"This thing is awesome. All 3 kids love it at 12" - by Amazon Customer

This thing is awesome. All 3 kids love it at 12, 7, and 2. I've never bought anything that appealed to all of them the way this swing does. It was kind of a pain to put together. I got most of it myself but I needed my husband's strength to pop the last pipe into position. There ous no way I could have gotten it myself. It is very strong and secure though.

"Totally unnecessary for a simple swing" - by Beck

Ok, so these things are definitely heavy duty. But, geez! I should've done some more research. These things are way too heavy duty for a simple toddler swing! These things could hold a whole classroom full of toddlers. Totally unnecessary for a simple swing! Unless you are intending to hang a school bus full of children from these I would recommend something a little more basic and a lot cheaper. They also do not come with the screws to secure them to the wood like some of the other basic swing securing hook/set. Just an additional purchase that continues to offset the necessary cost for this light weight toddler swing project.

"GREAT slide for older kids" - by Sim
We purchased this slide for our 6 yr old daughter. We use it in her indoor playroom. I assembled the slide in about 25 minutes it was easy. Its sturdy and well made. I like the vibrant colors. It has a wide base bar on the ladder area to keep it from toppling over. Our daughter gets very rambunctious and so far its remained upright. She loves it as do our 3 grandchildren ages 7,5 and 1.5. I gave it 4 stars because its advertised as foldable. This slide is not foldable your have to unassemble/unscrew to fold. I can't imagine it would hold up well outside. Its perfect for our purposes to be used indoors. We added swings, rubber floor and a foldable trampoline all purchased her on Amazon. Its great for burning off little ones energy and keeping us sane.

"Great!" - by Kindle Customer
Our youngest is a climber, so my husband thought we should get her something she is actually supposed to climb on for her first birthday. We don't have a designated playroom, so I was looking for something that wouldn't take up our entire living room. This is the perfect size for her! Both the one-year-old and our 3.5-year-old have had a blast climbing on this all day. It also seems really sturdy/good quality. The material looks like it will be easy to wipe down, but there are also zippers to remove the covers should they need to be washed. Really happy with our purchase!

"The reason of 4 stars is" - by Cleox Customer
I love it but make sure you know the tunnel isn't that tall. I personally add pads underneath the tunnel to make it work and now is perfect
