Project

Title:

Central

Arizona

College

Project Description. What was done in 110 words or less? Students are selected by the school admin personnel for distributions based upon their need and most likely did not receive any other money from scholarships.

When (dates) and where (city and state) did the project take place? Ongoing beginning in May 2020.

Who were the beneficiaries? Active students attending CAC.

How many Rotarians participated in thisproject? Three

What did the Rotarians do? Give at least two examples. Discussed distribution with College admin personnel. Raised the funds by conducting funding raising functions. Apply for the District matching Grant.

How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? I would estimate 10 students.

If a cooperating organization was used, what was it's role?

Thank you for the wonderful scholarship donation from the Rotary Club of Superstition Mountain.

Your $4000.00 donation will help several students with the purchase of books or students in need that may not qualify for grants or other scholarships.

Since I am retiring in June, Jose Dagnino, Assistant Director of Financial Aid will oversee the distribution with the CAC Foundation. The check will be deposited through the Foundation where the funds will be designated specifically for the Superstition Mountain Students.

We are very grateful for the Rotary's support.

Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Joyce Thompson, Fiscal Agent/Financial Aid
