Identified Needs: Students at several campuses in Lewisville ISD are English Language Learners who come from high poverty homes. Many students do not have access to technology or resources to assist them in their educational endeavors.

Project Rationale: The project will ensure that students have access to resource to aid in the English language development, Spanish language development, and content knowledge of 3rd grade TEKS.

Timeline: Upon receipt of the grant, dictionaries will be purchased and distributed in the winter 2020 (after Christmas brake). Club members will label all dictionaries, deliver to 3rd grade classes, present to 3rd graders about importance of literacy for college and career readiness. Approximately 1152 students will receive dictionaries in Spanish/English or English only
