Project Title: ROAD TO COLLEGE SUMMER CAMP 2020
(RTC)

Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?

The RTC camp is a summer program designed to help prepare and equip students to take advanced classes, while instilling in them a college-going culture. Most participants are low socioeconomic status. It is hosted at the local university.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 4 Rotarians regularly visit

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. during the road to college summer program.

The Rotarians that visit during the summer program will attend classes alongside the students in support, and often join them for lunch. On occasion they may also address the students formally.

4. How many Non-Rotarians participated in the project? 12+ teachers, sponsors,

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? mentors

The program provides a great benefit to a group of students commonly not given such educational opportunities. It also helps instill a college-going mindset for some that have never thought it possible.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? Zavala is the non-profit organization that sponsors the program. Our donations are made to Zavala, then passed on to the RTC program.
