

Emily Fowler Library Reading and Performance Nook

Denton Rotary Club
Centennial Project

The Programming Space Challenge at Emily Fowler

The Emily Fowler Library has many pleasant quiet reading areas and a rich schedule of programs but only one program area where talking is practical.

There are shaded outdoor spaces, but they aren't set up for group activities.

Denton Rotary Club
Centennial Project

Introducing the Reading and Performance Nook

- Includes Amphitheater Space and 4 Picnic Pods
- Materials:
Concrete, decomposed granite, river rock, sod and native Texas landscaping.
- Seating:
50

Multiple Uses for Reading and Performance Nook

Provides “talking allowed” space for:

- Storytimes
- Spanish Storytimes
- Elementary Adventure Times
- Twilight Toddler Times
- Book Clubs
- Gardening and ecology-themed programs
- Plus acoustic music performances and other small group classes and activities

Denton Rotary Club
Centennial Project

A Welcoming Space

- Variety of individual and group seating
- Clear sight lines to presentation area
- Remote spots for quiet conversation during musical performances

WHY US

WHY NOW

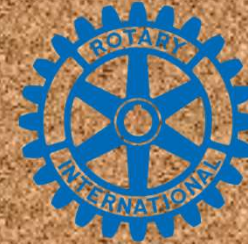

- Rotary is a global network of 1.2 million members in over 35,000 clubs who believe in taking action on our world's most persistent issues, including education and literacy.
- The Denton Noon Rotary Club, founded in 1920, has a long history of both international and local service.
- To commemorate the Club's centennial in 2020, we are taking the lead on making this contribution to literacy here in Denton
- We invite you to be part of this continuing gift.

Denton Rotary Club
Centennial Project

Funding and Recognition

Gift of The Denton Rotary Club
2020 Centennial

Major Partner Major Partner

Partner Partner Partner Partner

- Centennial Gala – Monroe Pearson Event Space – May 2020
 - On-site permanent commemorative plaque (specific wording TBD)
 - Ribbon cutting ceremony

Rotary

Denton Rotary Club
Centennial Project

Support the Nook

CONTACTS:

Paul Meltzer

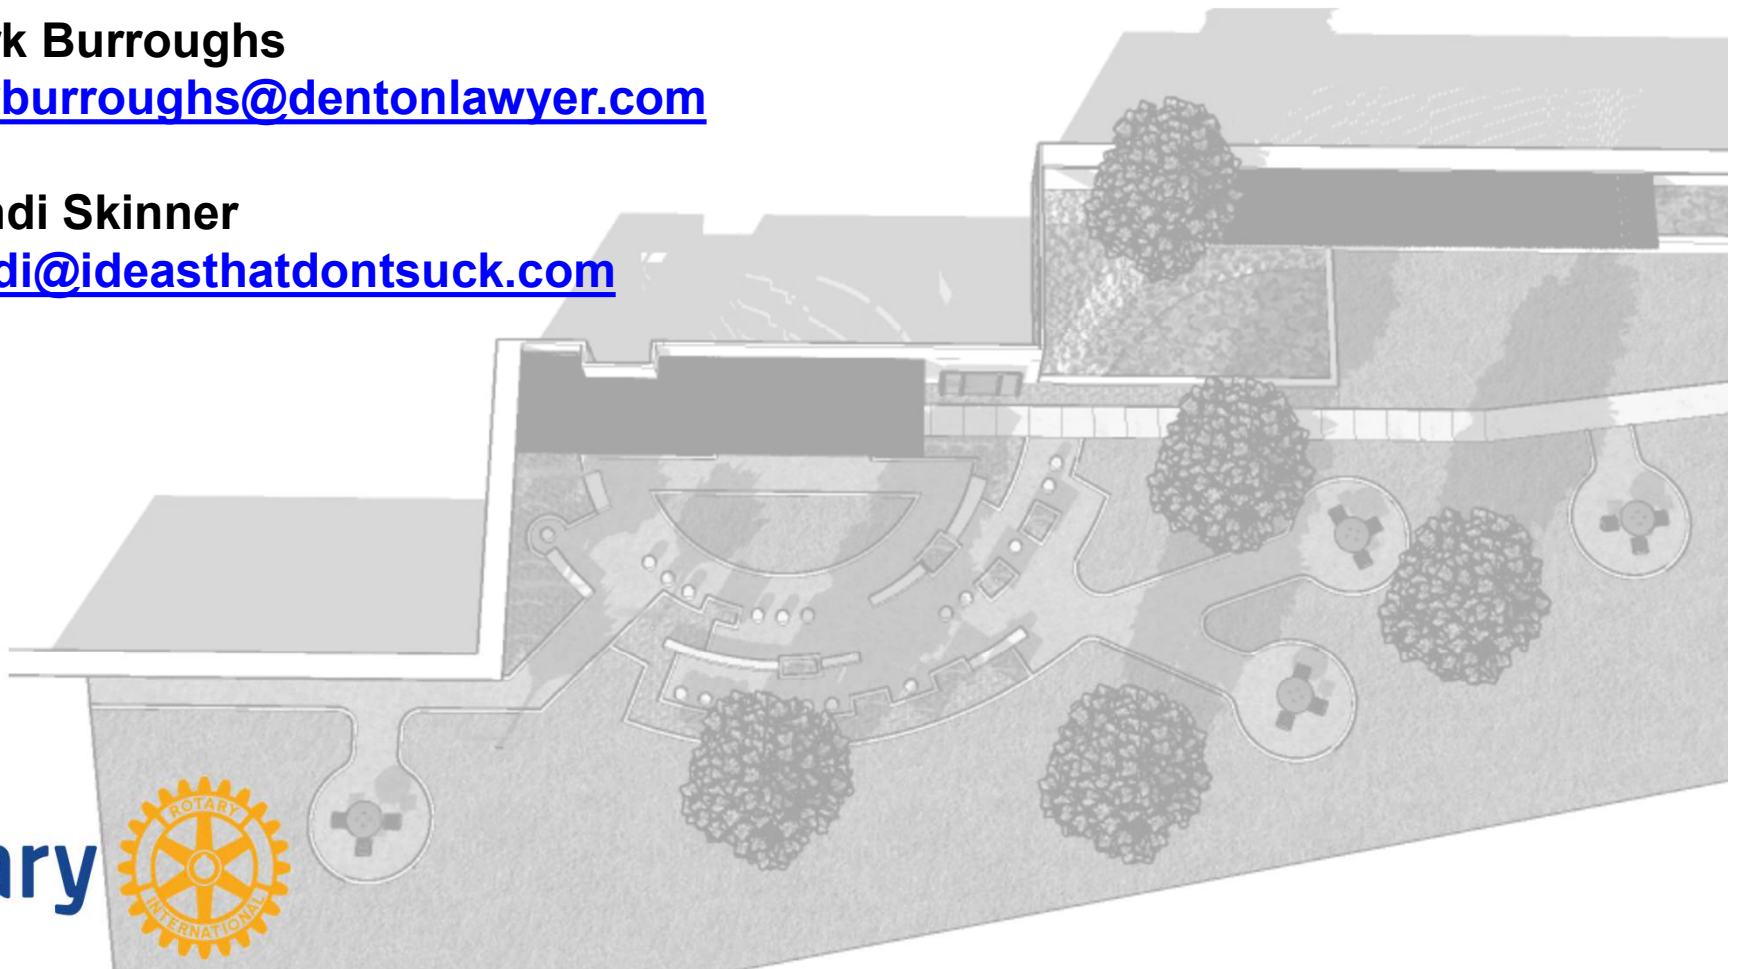

pmeltzer33@gmail.com

Mark Burroughs

attyburroughs@dentonlawyer.com

Randi Skinner

randi@ideasthatdentsuck.com

Rotary

