Re: Thank you for your donation!

Dear Craig,

On behalf of the entire World Central Kitchen team, I want to thank you for your donation of $500.00 made on 4/13/2020 in support of Frontline Foods.

We are facing an unparalleled global economic and humanitarian crisis due to COVID-19. With your support, WCK is providing millions of meals for kids and their families, the elderly, frontline health workers and the millions of Americans who have lost their jobs and are now struggling to put food on the table.

WCK has purchased more than a million meals from restaurants, providing fresh meals to those in need while helping a restaurant industry that is suffering during this difficult time. WCK is responding to the most critical needs in the U.S. with urgency, understanding that food relief is needed now.

"When you talk about food and water people don't want a solution one week from now, one month from now. The solution has to be now. The urgency of now is yesterday." - WCK Founder José Andrés

We will get through this together. Thank you for your belief and trust in our mission. If you have any questions or wish to be in touch with us, please reach out to Erin Gore at erin@wck.org.

Sincerely,

Nate Mook
CEO
