I am forwarding two emails from my first delivery of uniforms that I have received and will plan on taking to Nichols soon. I'm still working on the rest of the order for Nichols and I am working on the order for Webb. If you could add both amounts together and cut me a check, that would be great. The longer it sits on my credit card, the more interest I will have to pay. I'm assuming I don't have to get reimbursed all at once, right? I had to do online (I checked with a couple stores, and they weren't able to do anything at the store level for this amount/quantity). Therefore, I didn't get to do tax exempt. If you can't reimburse me for the tax, I will just need to pay it. Most places I've researched don't do tax exempt online.

Thx!
Jill Regina
