

Healthy Soil Workshop

New Seating

Seed Saving Class

Additional Access Gate

on-site food scrap & green waste composting learning how to "Winter Sow" by using milk cartons as mini-greenhouses partnership with Films on Purpose to show garden related documentaries

Volunteers from across the community work together to keep our garden growing Keeping our community informed on the importance of pollinators and how to protect them. Plus we get honey!

built by the community for the community over 800 lbs of produce donated Outdoor nature path provides exercise and educational opportunities

- tree identifying signs
- indigenous peoples and land acknowledgment
- invasive species information