District Grant Report

Rotary Club: The Rotary Club of Joliet

Project Title: 4740 Mental Health Adolescents 23

☐ Progress Report
 ☒ Final Report

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries? This is in connection with the Mental Health focus of Rotary. Silver Cross in connection with Silver Oaks Mental Health Center is our recipient. It is our first year. Our goal was to put together welcome baskets for adolescents experiencing mental health crises, who are being admitted to Silver Oaks for care. We offered puzzles and games, stress fidgets, and card games.
2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3 total.
3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. A presentation on the mental health needs of students in care was given by Dr. Imran Shakir of Silver Oaks to explain the need for mental health assistance in the community. Rotarians then donated this grant and snacks, fidgets or money to the project. Tracy Simons from Silver Cross Hospital coordinated the presentation of the gifts.
4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? Students totaling 150
5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? We serve the neediest of our community and by doing so, serve their families. It is a good respite for families of young adults struggling with mental health issues.
6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? None
