Dignifying Education for Unprivileged Children

Safe, Orderly, Clean and Conscious School

Through community involvement and the correct implementation of the Japanese 5'S quality system in Unprivileged Schools, a strong change in education and achievement can be achieved

¿What is Dignifying Education for Unprivileged Children ?

It is an educational and cultural change in school students, faculty and families mind set mindset project based on the implementation of the Japanese Quality System of the 5S's in local Unprivileged Schools working directly with children, families and teachers, seeking to improve spaces and services offered by the school and developing positive students habits in generating a different culture in terms of the importance of order and cleanliness in our daily lives

The success of this initiative requires a total commitment from principals, teachers, faculty, students and parents..
